

May Services at Unitarian Universalist Church in Reston

Summer schedule – one service at 10 a.m. – begins May 24

Sunday, May 3, at 9 and 11 a.m.

“I’d Like to Thank All the Little People – Fairy Tales, Mythology and Life Scripts”

The Reverends Sydney Wilde and Dennis Daniel

We will explore the truth and wisdom we grew up with, stories that have shaped our lives whether we know it or not. This will be a service filled with tall tales and reflections on their impact. ❖

Sunday, May 10, at 9 and 11 a.m.

“Things That I Have Learned From My Children”

The Worship Committee

Dana Sheppard, Melissa Swift, Kathie Pfeffer-Hahn, and Barbara Berlage will be sharing the things they have learned from their children. ❖

Sunday, May 17, at 9 and 11 a.m.

“Coming of Age”

Alison Eskildsen, Director of Religious Education

At 9 a.m., UUCR’s 7th and 8th graders present their personal credo, or “I believe” statements, during a special worship service. This Coming of Age ceremony is our UU version of a Jewish Bar Mitzvah and Christian Confirmation. At 11 a.m., we will present an adult compliment to the youth’s 9 a.m. service. ❖

Sunday, May 24, at 10 a.m.

“Memorial Day”

The Reverends Sydney Wilde and Dennis Daniel

Remembering those we love. ❖

Sunday, May 31, at 10 a.m.

“What’s So Funny About Peace, Love, and Understanding?”

Mary Ann East, Music Director, and the Music Program Committee

Our annual Music Sunday will be an intergenerational service featuring the musical talents of our members. ❖
