CARA FORTNER

Cara has recently finished a three-year term as the Worship Committee Chair, and also serves on the Leadership Council, the COVID Reopening Task Force, and chairs the Hybrid Worship Task Force. In the past she chaired the 2017 Strategic Plan Committee and served on the 2021 Strategic Plan Committee, the Nominating Committee and as an At-Large Board member.

In addition to her work on these committees, Cara also sings in the choir, has performed in all of our gala events/music nights/fundraisers, MC'd the Stewardship Campaign event, has led lay services and teaches RE.

Cara is currently attending Wesley Theological Seminary following her call to become a minister.

Cara and her husband, Jesse, have been members of UU Reston for 9 years and have two daughters, Eleanor (8) and Julia (4).
