

Lighten Santa's load this year by purchasing gifts of hope.

You are invited to the 10th Annual Alternative Gift Market and Fair Trade Crafts from Ten Thousand Villages

Saturday, December 4
10am - 2pm

This is the largest Alternative Gift Market in the DC metro area

Sponsored by the Unitarian Universalist Church in Reston 1625 Wiehle Avenue, Reston, Virginia 20190

Alternative gifts are donations to local and international charitable organizations that help those most in need. Purchasers will receive a gift card for the recipient of each gift and an explanation of how the donation will be used.

- $5, the cost of a latte, will provide after school snacks for a child in Reston
- $11, the cost of lunch, can buy one smokeless cooking stove for a family in Nepal
- $20, the price of a DVD, will provide one start-up micro-loan to a person in Nigeria
- $33, the price of a Wii game, will send one bicycle to Africa
- $50, less than dinner for two, can buy one year of health care for a person in Peru

All monies collected go directly to support charitable organizations. All donations are tax deductible. Cash and checks only.
For more information or directions, visit the Unitarian Universalist Church in Reston website at www.uureston.org